

IL LOFT / COLLECTION / CARPETS / TAPPETI

Tappeti

An innovative tufting technique that is based on ancient hand knotting methods, without trimming so that the wool is left at two different heights on the surface, thereby ensuring exceptional softness when the carpet is touched and walked on. This craftsman's technique, which is carried out entirely by hand, gives the carpet an immensely pleasing image of the ancient textile art that existed before carpets were trimmed to a uniform level.

 Stampa - Print

